e. Transparency with Hamlet News

- i. We will continue to invite other boards to be present so community members can reach out if they need.

f. Hall Questions:

- i. Chad mentioned that one of the furnaces may not be working in the hall. We will take a look at it.
- ii. Question regarding turning off the heat – the results are that there would be a condensation build-up and could damage the floor and all work-work.
- iii. The RM has taken any major decisions out of the hamlet's hands.
- iv. The bills do come out of the hamlet budget.
- v. We will look into exactly how much it would cost to keep the hall running – this can be presented at the AGM when we present the budget.

g. Costs to dress up town for Christmas:

- i. We will investigate costing and present once we have an update.

7. New Business:

- a. No New business to discuss.

8. Community Connections:

- a. Museum – new exhibit opening in June.

b. Kronau Curling Rink

- i. Learn to curl starts tonight.
- ii. 2 person curling spiel held on Feb. 1
- iii. Outdoor skating rink is open and free for residents of Kronau to use. Anyone who is not a resident is asked to pay a $25 fee to kcrc.kcc@gmail.com
